Our Complaints Handling Procedure

We aim to resolve your concerns, whenever possible, by close of business on the next working day.

If this is not possible, we will promptly acknowledge your complaint in writing no later than five working days after receipt.

If your complaint concerns the provision of (or failure to provide) a service by another firm authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA), such as an insurer, we will promptly refer your complaint in writing to the firm. In these circumstances we will provide you with the full contact details for the firm and, if the other firm is solely responsible, our final response.

We will endeavour to resolve your complaint at the earliest possible stage. We will thoroughly investigate the matter and will usually send our final response to you in writing no later than eight weeks after receipt of your complaint.

We will keep you regularly informed of our progress and the steps being taken to resolve your complaint. If our response is not issued within four weeks of the date we received your complaint, we will issue a letter to you explaining why we have been unable to resolve your complaint and indicate when we expect to be able to resolve your complaint. You are welcome to contact us at any time to check the status of our investigation.

If after eight weeks we have been unable to conclude your complaint, we will write to you explaining why and the options available to you.

Details of the Lloyd's complaints procedure are set out in the leaflet "Your Complaint – How We Can Help" available at the above web address. Submitting your complaint to the Lloyd's complaints team will not affect your right to use the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS) as outlined below, if eligible, should you not be satisfied with Lloyd's response.

Private Individuals and Small Medium Enterprises

If you are either a private individual or an enterprise involved in economic activity that employs fewer than 10 persons and has a turnover or annual balance sheet that does not exceed €2 million, you may refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS), provided we have had an adequate opportunity to resolve your complaint first. We will advise you of the time limits for making a referral to the FOS and supply a copy of the FOS explanatory booklet with our final response.

You can contact the FOS at:

Website: <http://www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk/consumer/complaints.htm>

Telephone: +44 (0)300 123 9 123 or 0800 023 4567.

We will provide whatever assistance we can to the FOS and abide with their final decision. Your right as a client to take legal action remains unaffected by the existence or use of any complaints procedures referred to above. However, the FOS will not adjudicate on any cases where litigation has commenced.

Online Dispute Resolution

The European Commission has established an Online Dispute Resolution Platform (ODR Platform).

It is specifically designed to help customers resident in the European Union (EU) who have a complaint about goods or services bought online from traders established in the EU. You can submit your complaint online through the ODR platform in any of the official languages of the EU. The ODR platform can then submit your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service to facilitate resolution of your complaint.

If you are resident in the EU and have a complaint about a product or service purchased from us, you may use the ODR online service by following the link: <http://ec.europa.eu/odr>.

As the ODR platform will ultimately re-direct your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service, you may prefer to contact us or the Financial Ombudsman Service directly in the first instance.
